A "SLAUGHTER MILL."—The death of another temale victim named Mary Geary, and the arrest of the 'doctor," a man named Evans, alias Lookup, has furnished "a horror" for the sensation mangers of the press of New York city. The Herald gives a graphic pic ture of the scene of this man's place of opera-tions in Chatham street, under the title of the Slaughter Mill. The reporter discovered over five hundred express envelopes marked "C. O. D," which had been returned with the money from the parties, generally of the female sex. in the New England and other States, for medi cines sent them. The sums of money in every case were either $30 or $25, and the packages sent to the unfortunate and guilty people were enclosed in cigar boxes which Evans, alias Lookup, had been in the habit of buying for his dread purpose. The envelopes were re turned by Adams, Wells & Fargo, the New York and Boston, the American, and other express companies.

Among the letters were several from wives covering the destruction of their unborn babes, and letters from husbands abetting the awful purpose, and conjuring the "doctor" to pre scribe the surest and specdiest means. Evans, alias Lookup, is a native of Edinburg, Scot land. Evans is reported to be worth a very large fortune.

Too Poor to Take the Paper .- One of our exchanges says of such pitiable people: 'The poorest man to be met with, especially in these stirring times, is the man who is too poor to take a newspaper. We pity such a man, especially it he is a man of property. Who ever heard of a man too poor to smoke or chew tobacco, if addicted to either? And yet many who spend ten or fifteen cents a day for the weed are too poor to take a newspaper, in the intellectual enjoyment of which their families might participate. Really such men are poor.
